- As with all other library materials, parents or legal guardians, not the library staff, are responsible for the Internet information selected and/or accessed by their children.

Parents or legal guardians should guide their children in the use of the Internet and inform them about materials they should not use. There may be material on the Internet which parents or legal guardians would consider inappropriate for their children to view.
- The library cannot assume the parent's or legal guardian's responsibility to monitor the child's Internet use to see if it conforms to the parent's standards.

Only parents may restrict their children from access to Internet resources available at the Library.

- Parents or legal guardians are advised to supervise their children's computer sessions and to encourage them not to give out personal information, such as names, addresses and phone numbers.

Wireless Network Use

- You will need to bring your own laptop computer or wireless device to the library. Your Laptop will need to have built-in Wi-Fi or you will need to purchase and install a Wi-Fi network card. The Library does not provide wireless cards and does not install them.
- Most Wi-Fi equipment will be compatible with library's Wi-Fi network. The library can make no guarantees that you will be able to connect with the library's network.
- To connect to the wireless network our wireless access points located in the library communicate with your wireless device. Our wireless network is called "Library." You should be able to connect anywhere in the library. When your wireless network card senses a signal, a message appears on the screen indicating a wireless network is available. Open your web browser and it will automatically connect to the Internet. When connecting to the Internet you are agreeing to abide by our Internet Use Policy.
- You are responsible for setting up your own equipment. If you are not familiar with computers or networking, we recommend bringing someone with you who can help you configure your device.
- Bring a fully charged battery (or two!); electrical outlets for plugging in laptops are limited.
- Though the network is designed to cover the entire Library, no guarantee is made for signal strength or availability.
- Our Internet use policy is still in effect when you are using the Library's Wi-Fi.
Remember, other patrons can still see your screen

- The Library's Wireless network is not secure. Keep this in mind as you surf the web. Do not send personal information unless you know the recipient is a reputable business that uses encryption on their website. (Most have a little lock showing in the task bar.)
- There is no time limit on using the Wi-Fi network; stay connected as long as you like.
- Printing is not available from the wireless network. You can save the information to a disk for printing at home, or send an email to yourself, then sign up for a public computer and print from there. Printing costs are 10 cents a page (Black & White) or 50 cents (Color).

Wireless Network User Agreement

- All relevant Library rules, regulations and policies apply, including but not limited to, the Dunkirk Public Library Computer & Internet Use Policy.
- The Library does not filter the content of wireless Internet access. The Library is not responsible for the content, accuracy, or availability of any external sites linked to these pages.
- Parents or guardians, not the Library or its staff, are responsible for the Internet information selected and/or accessed by their children. Parents may wish to supervise their children's Internet sessions or purchase filtering software for their computer.
- All users are expected to use the library's wireless access in a legal and responsible manner consistent with the educational and informational purposes for which it is provided. As stated in the library's acceptable use policy, users may not violate federal, state or local laws, including the transmission or receiving of child pornography or harmful material, fraud, or downloading copyrighted material.
